Sights of Bonn

Altes Rathaus (Old Town Hall)
Markt | 53111 Bonn
Built between 1737 and 1738 under the rule of Elector Clemens August. The steps leading up to the building are world-famous due to numerous receptions for State guests.
Opening hours for reception rooms: every first Sat from May to Oct 12 pm – 4 pm
Stadtbahn: U16, U63, U66 | Stop: Universität / Markt

Münsterbasilika mit Kreuzgang (Minster Basilica with Cloister)
Münsterplatz | Tel. 0228.98 58 80
Bonn’s nine-hundred-year-old minster basilica was built on a Roman burial ground. The basilica’s 12th-century Romanesque cloister and its powerful, yet slender-looking, 92 m high spire make it well worth a visit. www.bonner-muenster.de
Opening hours: closed for renovation | Cloister: Mon–Sat 10 am – 4 pm
Stadtbahn: U16, U61, Tram62, U63, U66 | Stop: Hauptbahnhof

Alter Friedhof (Old Cemetery)
The Old Cemetery is an oasis worth seeing and experiencing on the outskirts of Bonn city centre. Its graves are a reflection of Bonn’s cultural and intellectual history of the 18th and 19th centuries. Robert and Clara Schumann, Beethoven’s mother and other celebrities have found their last resting places here.
Opening hours: open daily summer 7 am – 8 pm, winter 8 am – 5 pm
Stadtbahn: U61, U62 | Stop: Stadthaus

University of Bonn
Regina-Pacis-Weg 3 | 53113 Bonn | Tel. 0228.73 76 47
The University of Bonn, the former electoral residence, was founded in 1818 by King Friedrich-Wilhelm III. The long east wing of the building reaches almost to the Rhine. A gilded archangel flies in splendour over the ‘Koblenzer Tor’ (Coblenz Gate), which was designed by Michel Leveilly and built into the impressive façade of the gate.
Bonn’s Egyptian Museum is situated above the Coblenz Gate and boasts an Egyptology collection of about 3,000 objects from 4000 BC to 300 AD.
The Hofgarten park is adjacent to the main building of the university and the Academic Art Museum, which features, among other things, one of the world’s largest collections of plaster cast antique sculptures.

Bonn Rhine Promenades / Rheinaue Leisure Park / ‘Alter Zoll’ Tolling Station
Bonn’s Rhine promenades are among the most beautiful in Germany. Rheinaue Leisure Park, site of the Federal Horticultural Show (BUGA) in 1979, offers an extensive network of paths and tracks. Some of its main attractions are the Japanese Garden and a large boating lake. The former tolling station, ‘Alter Zoll’, offers a wonderful panoramic view of the Siebengebirge.

Südstadt
The Südstadt quarter, situated south of the city centre, between Regina-Pacis-Weg, Poppelsdorfer Allee, Reuterstraße, Kaiserstraße, Weberstraße and the Rhine, is often referred to (along with Bonn’s Weststadt) as the largest connected and preserved Wilhelminian quarter in Germany. The many restaurants and bars contribute to the quality and popularity of this lush green residential quarter.

The Romantic Rhine Valley

For over two centuries, guests from all over the world have travelled to the Romantic Rhine; Whether it was Goethe, Mark Twain, Casanova or William Turner – none could resist the allure of this fascinating landscape. The Sieengebirge hills near Bonn mark the start of the most impressive section of the river valley. There are still numerous castles and palaces in the wooded hills on both banks waiting to welcome the visitors of today. Immerse yourself in a world of myths and legends, and experience the romance of the Rhine.

Drachenfels in the Siebengebirge and Königswinter
The town of Königswinter on the River Rhine is famous for its sights and wines. Together with the Siebengebirge, the oldest nature park in Germany, it is a particularly attractive destination for excursions. Travel up the Drachenfels (Dragon’s Rock) with Germany’s oldest rack railway; Drachenburg Castle is situated halfway up; and the nearby Petersberg with the Grandhotel Petersberg offers a magnificent view of the Rhine Valley.

Rhine in Flames® between Linz and Bonn
Every year on the first Saturday in May ‘Rhine in Flames’ is undoubtedly one of the most splendid and spectacular festivals on the Rhine. About 60 illuminated vessels sail from Linz to Bonn, past riverside promenades, castles and churches bathed in the glow of Bengal lights, while various hilltop fireworks light up the night sky. The festival culminates in Bonn with an impressive half-hour firework accompanied by music. The best place to enjoy this unique event is on board one of the vessels. In addition, there is a large festival with live music in the Rheinaue Leisure Park during the day.

Shopping in Bonn
Chic boutiques, traditional specialist stores, modern department stores, trendy shopping arcades and colourful markets make shopping in Bonn a real pleasure. And the offer is not limited to one of Germany’s oldest and largest pedestrian precincts in the heart of the city, but also extends to the shopping high streets of the city districts Bad Godesberg, Beuel and Hardtberg. Designer fashion, toys, art and craft, musical memories from the city of Beethoven or the region’s culinary specialities – all of these souvenirs can be found in Bonn.

Culinary Diversity
The university city of Bonn is a young and dynamic city that offers culinary specialities from many countries around the world; however, visitors who are looking for typical German cuisine and a cozy Rhenish beer tavern, are just as likely to find it in the centre of the city. In the evenings, a visit to the student quarters, Old Town (behind the Stadthaus town hall), Südstadt quarter (between Prinz-Albert-Straße and Poppelsdorfer Allee) or Poppelsdorf (close to the palace) can always be recommended. The culinary diversity ranges from the traditional, rustic pub and exotic speciality restaurants all the way to fine gourmet restaurants and nightly hot spots. The ‘Endenich cultural mile’ is a major attraction with its cabarets, pubs and bars. During the summers Bonn’s citizens and visitors like to sit by the Rhine and enjoy the magnificent panoramic views offered by the city’s beautiful beer gardens and traditional wine taverns. Bonn’s flourishing outdoor bar and restaurant scene and Rhenish flair has led to it sometimes being called ‘Italy’s northernmost city’.
