Hop On Hop Off - Through Beethoven's City on the Rhine!

The city tour in the red double-decker bus gives you the opportunity to discover the most important sights in the city and learn about the many facets of Bonn in multiple languages.

Once the Romans settled here on the banks of Rhine, in recent history Bonn was the capital of the young Federal Republic of Germany. Today, Bonn is an attractive UN and University city with a rich cultural life, and is an important centre for business and architectural heritage of more than 2000 years of history. Experience the south district with its picturesque late 19th century houses and the Museum Mile with its renowned institutions. The former governmental district has developed into Bonn's new international centre with the UN campus and global headquarters. Enjoy the unique panorama of the Siebengebirge hills at the gateway to the Romantic Rhine and the flair of the former spa and residence town Bad Godesberg with its beautiful villas.

This tour lasts about 120 minutes without getting off. Make the most of a 24-hour ticket* to hop on and off at our stops whenever you want.

* 24-hour ticket only if possible according to the timetable

Beethoven's years in Bonn

Discover Ludwig van Beethoven's birthplace in the Bonn-gasse 20, where he was born in December 1770. Who at that time could have known that a musical genius was born, whose music would be known all over the world today? Beethoven lived in Bonn until 1792, before he moved to Vienna, where he became one of the world's famous composers. You will visit places and locations where the composer worked, and you will gain fascinating insights into his everyday life. Possible stations of the tour include: The Remigius Church with Ludwig van Beethoven's baptismal font and the Beethoven monument at the Münsterplatz.

▶ Tip: Round off the tour with a visit to the museum Beethoven-House (reduced entrance fee).

General Terms and Conditions for guided tours

For individual guests

Status: March 2022

1. The following General Terms and Conditions apply to the business relationship between Bonn-Information and participants on tours of Bonn for individual guests on stipulated dates.

2. Customers can reserve places on guided walking and bus tours of the city verbally or in writing with Bonn-Information. The basis of the service is the tour descriptions and the General Terms and Conditions stated here. The contract comes about with receipt of the declaration of acceptance of the reservation by Bonn-Information, which does not require a form. This means that in addition to written confirmations, verbal, telephone and electronic confirmations are also legally binding. Uncollected reserved tickets will be charged to the person who ordered them.

3. Different conditions of the provider apply to Tour A 1.

4. Bonn-Information undertakes to carry out guided tours in all weathers, insofar as the safety of participants does not appear to be endangered. The decision whether there is risk, and therefore whether a seasonal tour will take place, will be taken by the responsible tour guide on site.

5. Travel to the agreed meeting point for the agreed time is the responsibility of the customer. The Bonn tours for individual guests start at the times published by Bonn-Information.

6. In principle, no exact compliance of the route and sequence can be guaranteed for guided walking and bus tours of the city. Changes to the routes as well as the adjustment of points on the programme are expressly reserved for specific objective reasons (e.g. traffic jams or building sites). It may also be necessary for objective reasons to replace individual points on the programme or points of interest with others. Any risks which occur, may lead to the early discontinuation of a tour.

7. Replacements or reimbursements of tickets are possible in serious individual cases (e.g. sudden illness on presentation of a medical certificate). Bonn-Information reserves the right to decide on the replacement or reimbursement of tickets.

8. If a guided tour is cancelled, the costs of the tickets will be settled via bank transfer by the Cashier's Office of the City of Bonn.

9. Discounted prices apply to children and young people from the age of 12 to 18, students, holders of the Bonn pass and people with disabilities on submission of the corresponding paperwork. The participation of children under 12 years of age is free of charge. If a disabled person has the right to a companion, the participation of the companion on the tours is free of charge.

10. The contractual liability of Bonn-Information for losses, which are not physical injuries, is limited to three times the total price of the service paid for by the customer, insofar as the loss was not caused intentionally or grossly negligently by Bonn-Information, or insofar as Bonn-Information is responsible for the loss incurred by a participant solely owing to the culpability of one of its auxiliary agents. Bonn-Information is not liable for disruptions to the service in connection with services, which are merely provided as external services in addition to the services in the contract for the guest.

11. The latest safety, distancing and hygiene concept of Bonn-Information applies at all times.

12. The ineffectiveness of individual provisions does not result in the ineffectiveness of all the contractual conditions. The statutory provisions will replace any ineffective provisions.

13. The place of jurisdiction is Bonn.

General Terms and Conditions for the provision of guides by Bonn-Information

1. Bonn-Information will provide tour guides for individual guests and groups with the diligence of a prudent businessman. The contracting partners are the person who placed the order, as well as the guide deployed. The contractual relationships between Bonn-Information and the person who placed the order are regulated in accordance with the points below.

2. The person who placed the order recognises these conditions when the guide is commissioned to undertake the assignment.

3. Alterations, supplements and cancellations, in certain cases for an additional charge, will be accepted by Bonn-Information as the agent and it will respond to the latter on behalf of and after confirmation with the tour guide.

4. If the guide or a representative has not appeared at the agreed meeting point within 15 minutes of the agreed time of the tour, Bonn-Information will attempt to arrange another guide at short notice within its current office hours.

5. Bonn-Information is liable for compensation, for whatever legal reasons, only as part of the statutory provisions as an agent in the event of its own intentional or grossly negligent actions or those by one of its auxiliary agents. Exceptions to this are losses arising from an injury to life, the body or health. Bonn-Information is not liable for services of the guide or a third party, which are provided as part of a guided city walking or bus tour (e.g. tours in museums, Churches, places of interest etc.).

6. The latest safety, distancing and hygiene concept of Bonn-Information applies at all times. We reserve the right to amend the permitted maximum number of people on every tour in line with the situation.

7. The ineffectiveness of individual provisions does not result in the ineffectiveness of all the contractual conditions. The statutory provisions will replace any ineffective provisions in this case.

8. The place of jurisdiction is Bonn.
